D. D. Whitney, who has been visiting in Los Angeles the past two weeks, returned to Kingman Monday last.

M. I. Powers, of the Citizens Bank, is looking after business in Kingman, while A. J. McKelvey, cashier of the local bank is on the sick list.

John Gross, who has mining property in the Mineral Park section, was a Kingman visitor this week, having been called here on jury duty.

C. E. Walker, the well known Denver architect and contractor, passed through Kingman this week on his way to Chloride, where he is interested in the Rainbow Mountain Mining company. He was accompanied by another shareholder in the corporation and will remain here some time.

The many warm personal friends and acquaintances of Capt. John C. Potts will regret to learn of his serious illness at his home in Kingman. Capt. Potts is suffering from a stroke of paralysis, but is getting along nicely and is expected to soon be attending to his duties. During the past forty years Capt. Potts has been a resident of Mohave county, being among the first settlers of Cerbat, as well as the first men to take up residence in Kingman. To all the old timers he has been associate and friend and one and all wish him a speedy and permanent recovery.

The trial of E. H. Dickie and E. A. Foltz came up before Judge Krook and a jury last Monday. After the introduction of the evidence for the State counsel for defendants Ross H. Blakely moved the court to instruct a verdict of acquittal, which was done, the prosecution offering no objection. Dickie and Foltz were held to the Superior Court on a charge of butchering government cattle. The evidence presented at the trial was so contradictory that the offense complained of had been committed from May to December no two agreeing as to the time and place.

Last Monday morning A. F. Duclos, superintendent of the Fort Mohave Indian School, arrived in Kingman, making the trip by auto. He reported that the night before a terrific storm of rain struck the Mohave valley, filling the sloughs with water and making quagmires of the roads. Through the bottoms the roads were almost impassible. He also reports that so far the department has been unable to secure more than an appropriation from the Indian funds for the purpose of securing a bridge site, and that if a favorable report is made nothing in the way of an appropriation will be obtained before next December, if then. We all know how slow the government and its departments work and must not expect the matter of bridge building to be rushed. That the bridge is a necessity is apparent, but if we must have it soon it is up to Mohave and San Bernardino counties to build it.

Dr. W. H. Bucher returned from Prescott yesterday evening.

L. Hoffman went out to the Golconda mine yesterday and returned late in the afternoon accompanied by his daughter, Miss Leona, who has been teaching at that place.

Mrs. Charles Buffen has been compelled to close the Cozy Corner restaurant on account of sickness but will have bread, pies and other eatable for sale at the old stand.

C. W. Lynch departed Thursday evening for Marietta Springs, California, where he will take the waters of that famous resort to relieve himself of an attack of rheumatism.

Mrs. George S. Briggs, Mrs. Lallah Dillehut, the Misses Gertie and Frank and Clifford Potts came in from Santa Ana and Los Angeles this morning, being called here by the illness of their father, J. C. Potts.

E. J. Lucy, who has been one of the most proficient of the Western Union operators at Kingman, the past several years, has been appointed chief operator, as well as head ticket clerk, by agent Gaither at the local station.

Monday last Anson H. Smith, Justice of the Peace, united in marriage John Bowen and Miss Myra Wigent. The happy couple are well and favorably known in Kingman and their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

Deputy Assessor W. O. Ruggles has been hard at work the past two months assessing property in Kingman and lining up everything taxable about this section of the county, while Assessor Hunt is in the north part of the county listing property. The work of Mr. Ruggles will be of great value to the board of equalization this year and will give a permanent basis for future assessment of all forms of property.

William Cofer and Miss Eva Harris were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's aunt, at Goldfield, Nevada, on the 26th of last month. The happy young people arrived in Kingman Tuesday morning and were met at the train by a large number of friends. They will remain in Kingman. Two many friends of the young couple wish them long years of happy married life. Mrs. Cofer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Harris and is a native daughter of the county. Mr. Cofer was also born in Mohave county and has a large circle of friends here.

Last evening the local lodge of Elks installed its officers for the year. Sumner H. Beecher is the new Exalted Ruler of the lodge; C. W. Lynch, Leading Knight; Judge C. G. Krook, Loyal Knight; Harry Knight, Lecturing Knight; J. S. Withers, Secretary; I. M. George, Treasurer; J. C. Lane, Tyler; J. R. Russell, Trustee. E. A. Shaw, past exalted ruler, was elected delegate to the grand lodge, which meets at Denver this year. Mr. Shaw, during his term of office, not only conducted the initiation of more new members than any other exalted ruler in the history of the local lodge, but also had the satisfaction of seeing the finishing touches put on the new club rooms. These rooms are the pride of the lodge and represent the hard work of a committee composed of E. F. Thompson, I. M. George and J. H. Rosenberg the past two years. The property of the lodge is now worth 35,000$, and only a small indebtedness stands against it.

H. A. McFarland, Charles B. Howard and N. S. Norwood came in from Prescott Wednesday last to make an effort to secure the cooperation of Kingman in the inauguration of a baseball circuit of Northern Arizona. Owing to the distance between towns it would be a hard matter to clear the jumps profitably. This subject has been threshed out repeatedly with the same result. And while Kingman people are all baseball fans they believe that it would be too expensive to attempt to keep up a club to play continuous ball in Winslow, Flagstaff, Williams, Prescott and Kingman. The towns are not large enough to stand such a drain as the upkeep of clubs would entail. McFarland is the manager of the Prescott team and has just signed up for four of the Kingman players—Fennell, Norwood, Clark and Sampson. The latter two will be the battery for the club and Norwood will play short and Fennell the first sack. The boys are ardent ball players and the Prescott team should play winning ball.

Jury Term of Superior Court.

Last Monday the April Jury Term of the Superior Court was convened, Judge Krook presiding. Several defendants had been held to answer, but owing to the fact that in one or two cases the complaining witnesses had gone, hence no prosecution could be had. A jury was empaneled to try the cause of the State against Dickie and Foltz and a verdict for defendants was directed by the court.

On agreement of County Attorney Herndon the charge against Dave O'Brien was dismissed, O'Brien turning state's evidence against J. Lowney. Following this action Lowney changed his plea of not guilty to that of burglary and was later paroled by the court.

Jack Moran was tried before a jury on a charge of burglary and was found guilty. The court gave him until the 11th of the month to bring in extenuating evidence on a motion for parole. It is said that this fellow is a bad one, being of the petty larceny order and that it is not probable that he will be able to convince the court that parole would make a better man of him.

Judge Perkins, of Coconino county, was called to try cases in which Judge Krook was disqualified, but owing to the fact that nearly all these cases had been reset for the 24th of this month only one case was heard and taken under advisement, that of the estate of J. A. Logan against Kean St. Charles.

Judge Perkins departed to his home in Flagstaff last evening.

Today Judge Krook will hear testimony in two insanity cases, that of Harry Nelson and a man who "as brought in from the Sandy last Sunday. Nelson proposed to a young lady in Kingman a few days ago and because she refused to marry him threatened to kill her. His actions were peculiar and the belief is that he is insane.

F. S. Dickerson, of Seligman, drove his machine to Kingman a few days ago and has been looking after business affairs in town. He and other citizens of Seligman feel that the board of supervisors of Yavapai county has treated the north part of the county badly in the matter of road repair and the opening of a better road to a connection with the east and west road through Mohave county. The road between Seligman and Ash Fork was built by the citizens of the two towns and its upkeep is directly chargeable to them. Yavapai will find that when it comes to again dividing the county there will be little effort on the part of the people of the north portion to prevent the dismemberment.

The Ernest Gamble Concert Company will give one of its popular performances in the M. E. church tomorrow evening. This company is giving its performances under the auspices of the Santa Fe Reading Room entertainment, and is said to be one of the best this department has ever sent out. Owing to the small seating capacity of the church only about 125 tickets will be given out.

C. C. Herron, of Monrovia, Cal., accompanied by a foster brother, J. F. Seville, of Butte, Montana, visited in Kingman several days this week. Mr. Herron is interested in mining property in the Tom Reed section.

Why it Suits Particular People

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is prompt and effective for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, bronchial coughs and for any condition where the membranes of the throat and bronchial tubes are inflamed and raw. Thomas Thomas Terron, Hancock, Mich., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has always proven effective, quickly relieving tickling throat and stopping the cough with no bad after effect." It contains no opiates, and is a pure, reliable medicine. That's why it suits particular people. H. H. Watkins, Druggist.

Election Board of Education.

Last Saturday election was held in the school districts of the county for a board of education for a County Union High School. Kingman polled a big vote for the various candidates. The women were out in force and worked hard for their respective candidates. While Dr. Tilton was the favorite in the town of those with opposition Tom Devine polled a heavy vote on the other ticket. O. D. M. Gaddis was voted for on both tickets and his election was assured from the first. The board, as the returns show it to be constituted, will be as follows: O. D. M. Gaddis, five years; Tom Devine, four years; S. S. Jones, three years; Dr. A. L. Tilton, two years; J. C. Wilson, one year. The board will be organized today and then the work of preparing for a county high school will be undertaken. The board will probably favor the issuance of bonds and the erection of an adequate building to house an up-to-date high school. The following is the vote as cast for each candidate:

At the local district school election last Saturday Mrs. C. A. Patterson and Kean St. Charles contended for the honor of representing the district. Mrs. Patterson winning out by a vote of 124 to 107. The election was a spirited contest for the result was in doubt until the last vote was counted. Mr. St. Charles has represented the district the past ten years and made an exceptionally good trustee. Mrs. Patterson has had considerable experience in the conduct of schools, having taught in the public schools of the country a number of years.

The Last Days of Pompeii

Has been hailed by critics as a masterpiece greater even than the wonderful "Quo Vadis". Through the beautiful, idle, slumberous City of Pompeii, following closely the thread of a love tale idyllic, Lord Bulwer's mighty story sweeps on to scenes of almost preternatural power.

The destruction of Pompeii—the mad scurrying of the demented thousands amid a hail of smoking cinders and blasts of flame—the falling of great pillars—the collapse of temples—makes one feel that his ears ring with the shrieks of the terror-maddened multitudes of the stricken city.

The Last Days of Pompeii was made at Turin and Pompeii, Italy. Nearly 5,000 people were employed in the making—a tremendous throng of daintily garbed, picturesque Italians. Run in all the biggest houses in the U. S. Will probably be here for one night only between April 13 and 15th. Admission 50c.

Bond buyers have made another proposition to the supervisors for the purchase of the bonds of the county and it is to be expected that the good road bonds will soon be sold and the work of road building on a large scale brought under way. Mohave county, as well as all the other counties in the state, need good roads and we hope that this year will see the inauguration of a system of roads that will conduce to the material benefit of all sections.
